THE SIR FRANK WORRELL HALL'S CONSTITUTION

Last amended November 2022

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

ARTICLE I – GENERAL

1. Interpretations
2. Authority of the Constitution
3. Reservation of Powers
5. Rules for Constitutional Amendments

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

9. Categories of Membership
10. Honorary Membership
12. Rights and Privileges of Honorary Members
13. Full Membership
14. Rights and Privileges of Full Membership
15. Executive Membership
16. Responsibilities of the Executive

ARTICLE III – ELECTORAL PROCESSES

18. Offices and Voting
20. Appointment of Returning Officer
21. Appointment of Special Projects Chairperson
22. Appointment of Culinary Arts Chairperson
23. Election of Block Representatives
25. Confidence Vote
26. Eligibility
27. Eligibility of the Treasurer
28. Eligibility of the Constitutional Chairperson
29. Provison where there are no suitable candidates for posts outlined in sections 28 and 29
30. Tenure of Office
31. Nomination Forms
33. Nomination Dates
35. The Electoral Committee
38. Campaign Rules
43. Procedures for Elections and By-elections
47. Poll Times
49. Voters Rules
51. Ballots
54. Electoral Queries
55. Posting of Election Results
56. Election Dates
57. Election Sequence
58. Vacancies
61. Vacancy for the post of Hall Chairperson
62. Vacancy for the post of Deputy Hall Chairperson

63. Vacancy for the post of Treasurer
64. Vacancy in any other office
65. Resignations

ARTICLE IV – THE EXECUTIVE

66. Establishment
67. Handing Over
68. Oaths of Office
71. Objectives of the Executive
72. Offices of the Executive
73. Duties of the Hall Chairperson
76. Duties of the Deputy Hall Chairperson
79. Duties of the Treasurer
83. Duties of the Secretary
85. Duties of the Public Relations Officer
88. Duties of the Constitutional Chairperson
90. Duties of the Welfare Officer
93. Duties of the Cultural and Entertainment Activities Chairperson
95. Duties of the Sports and Games Chairperson
97. Duties of the Maintenance Representative
99. Duties of the Culinary Arts Chairperson
101. Duties of the Returning Officer
103. Duties of the Special Projects Chairperson.
105. Leave of Absence

ARTICLE V – BLOCK REPRESENTATIVES

108. Electoral Processes for the Election of Block Representation
115. Duties of the Block Representative

ARTICLE VI – STANDING COMMITTEES

117. Standing Committees
120. Formation of Standing Committees
122. Membership of Standing Competitions

ARTICLE VII – MEETINGS AND CONDUCT PROTOCOLS

124. Hall Council Meetings
127. Notice General Meetings of the Hall Council
128. General Council Meetings
129. Special Hall Council Meetings
130. Notice of Special Hall Council Meetings
131. Executive Meetings
136. Procedures for Executive
137. Meetings
138. Voting- Executive
141. Conduct of the Executive
145. Notice of Executive Meetings

145. Executives' Quorum
146. Absence/Tardiness from Executive Meetings
148. Confidentiality of Executive Meetings
150. Dress Code for Executive Meetings

ARTICLE VIII – BREACHES AND DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

151. Disciplinary Committee
154. Forms of Breach
155. Theft Clause
156. Reprimand of Hall Chairperson
158. Reprimand of Constitutional Chairperson
159. Reprimand of Other Executive Officers
160. Notices of Impeachment
162. Motions of Impeachment
166. Determination of Impeachment
167. Dissolution of the Organization

– ARTICLE I –

GENERAL

Interpretation

(1) In this Constitution and in all Byelaws, Rules and Regulations, the following words and expressions shall have meanings as assigned to them herein:

"Absolute majority" means three quarters (3/4) of those present and voting.

"Byelaws" means the byelaws of the Frank Worrell Hall Constitution for the time being in force.

"Campus" means the University of the West Indies' Cave Hill Campus.

"Constitution" means the constitution of the Frank Worrell Hall Council.

"Council" means and refers to all categories of membership as described by the Frank Worrell Hall Council Constitution.

"Executive" means the duly elected/appointed, decision-making, and representative student organ of the Frank Worrell Hall Council.

"Executive member" refers to any full member who is successfully elected/ duly appointed to sit in any post on the Council's Executive according to the rules and stipulations of this Constitution."

"Full Member" refers to all students who reside on Frank Worrell Hall for the period of their residency.

"General (Hall Council) Meeting" refers to an official meeting of the Frank Worrell Hall Council & the Executive once a quorum is established.

"Guild Council" means the Committee of the Guild of Students established under Article 20 of the Guild of Student's Constitution.

"Hall" means the Frank Worrell Hall of Residence.

"Honorary member" refers to past residents of the Hall who are still affiliated with the Hall or such persons as shall be deemed worthy by the Executive via a vote of simple majority.

"Property" shall be any item, of intellectual or physical nature, that is created, controlled, managed, or secured by the Executive or any other person that the Executive entrusts with such for the furtherance of Council affairs and or objectives in any manner.

"Quorum" means twenty percent (20%) of the residents on Hall.

"Simple majority" means a majority for, over votes against, abstentions notwithstanding.

"University" means the formal administrative bodies of the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus.

"Welfare Fund" refers to all funds allocated by the Executive, through the office of the Welfare Officer, to the financial assistance of the General Membership of the Council.

"Theft" refers to the act of dishonestly appropriating property belonging to any full member of the Frank Worrell Hall, with the intention of permanently depriving said full member of that property.

Authority Of the Consitution

(2) This Constitution derives its validity from Section 30 (1) of the Guild of Students Constitution, UWI, Cave Hill Campus, and shall be subject to the said section and all other laws and byelaws of the Guild's Constitution.

Reservation Of Powers.

(3) The Council's Constitutional Committee, shall have the power to determine all matters on which this Constitution and any rules or regulations made hereunder are silent or from which ambiguity or otherwise arises.

(4) Reference to this Constitution shall include all byelaws, regulations, and rules made under powers conferred herein.

Rules for Consitutional Ammendments

(5) Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall ONLY be motioned by the Constitutional Committee upon the request of the Constitutional Chairperson or no less than seventeen to twenty (17 - 20) full members of the Council.

(6) Where full members are motioning for a constitutional amendment, these MUST be submitted in writing to the Constitutional Chairperson who will inform the Constitutional Committee and the Executive of the proposed amendments.

(7) A motion for the Constitution's amendment may be heard if ten (10) days ' notice has been given to the General Council membership of the Motion. The particulars of the proposed amendment must also be published to the General Council membership ten (10) days prior to the general Council's meeting.

(8) The Constitution's amendment must be passed both by a vote of simple majority by the Guild Council and by a vote of absolute majority by full members of the council who are in favour of the motion, whereupon, it shall take effect immediatly.

– ARTICLE II –

MEMBERSHIP

Membership

(9) The Council shall consist of three categories of membership:
(a) Honorary Membership
(b) Full Membership
(c) Executive Membership

Honorary Membership

(10) Honorary membership can only be repealed by a vote of simple majority and must be due to conduct deemed as having jeopardised and/or compromised the rights and well-being of the Council at large.

Fees

(11) Honorary membership will be granted ONLY upon payment of the relevant membership fees, decided by the Deputy Hall Chairperson. Membership fees are all non-refundable.

Rights & Privileges

(12) Honorary members in good financial standing shall have the following rights, privileges, and limitations:
(a) The right to participate in and contribute to any event or activity of the Council. This includes attachment to a block on hall of their choice.
(b) Special offers and possible discounts at all Council events.
(c) The right to speak on all matters pertaining to the Council at General Meetings.
(d) Honorary Members shall not be allowed to vote in any Council elections.
(e) Honorary members shall not be allowed to hold any positions on the Executive whether by election or appointment.

Full Membership

(13) Full membership is equivalent to and ONLY valid for the period that One resides on Hall.

Rights & Privileges

(14) Full members shall have the following rights:
(a) the right to life, liberty, freedom of speech, religion and personal property,
(b) (i) the right to his or her own personal space. That space being his or her bedroom,
(ii) the use of this space must not infringe on any other member, whether by loud music, loud talking and any other activity that may be considered offensive,

(c) the right to ensure that all shared spaces be kept clean at all times and

(d) The right not to be discriminated against by another due to class, colour, creed, religion, sex/sexuality, age, nationality, physical or mental impairment.

(e)The right to participate in and contribute to any event or activity of the Council.

(f) The right to speak on all matters pertaining to the Council at General Meetings.

(g) The right to be duly informed of actions taken by the Executive council on behalf of full members regarding:

1. Allocation of funds
2. Minutes of Meetings
3. Electoral Processes of the Executive including appointed positions.

(h) The right to raise motions in accordance with this Constitution at General meetings.

(i) The ONLY members with the right to vote in Council elections and at General Meetings of the Council.

(j) The ONLY members with the right to seek nominations and contest in elections for any Executive office on the Council once constitutionally Eligible.

(k) Such other rights and privileges as may be conferred by this Constitution from time to time.

(l) If any person alleges that any of the provisions of sections a - k of this Constitution has been, is being or is likely to be contravened in relation to him or her that person may seek redress first from the Block Representative, then from the Resident Advisor.
Residents also have the option of coming directly to the Constitutional Chairperson in matters of confidentiality and urgency.

Executive Membership

(15) Executive membership ONLY runs concurrently with tenure of office.

Responsibilities

(16) The general responsibilities of the Executive shall be as follows:

(a) Represent the views and concerns of the Council to the Hall Administration and the Guild Council.

(b) Assist the Student Services and/or Hall Manager in ratifying and rectifying concerns raised by Council members.

(c) Attend to, plan, and execute programs geared towards the holistic development of Council members.

(d) Operate in a manner that is in accordance with the educational and social purposes of the University.

(e) Set up `standing advisory committees. These committees shall report to and be under the control of the Executive.

(f) Amend and terminate contracts and/or programs pertinent to the functioning of the Council at large.

(g) Make byelaws or amendments to this Constitution following its stipulations.
(h) Fulfil its objectives and yearly agendas as best as possible.

Portfolio Folders

(17) ALL Executive members are required to maintain a well-kept folder wherein documents and contact information for the tenure of their respective portfolios will be stored. Care MUST be taken as to this folder's presentation.

– ARTICLE III –

ELECTORAL PROCESSES

Offices and Voting

(18) ALL offices except those of the Returning Officer, Special Projects Chairperson, Culinary Arts Chairperson and Block Representatives are available for office via voting by secret ballot ONLY of the full members of this Council subject to the provisions of this Constitution.

(19) The office of Hall Chairperson shall NOT be managed by this Council's Electoral Committee but by the Guild's Electoral Committee.

(20) The office of Returning Officer shall be an appointed office of the Executive via a vote of simple majority of the Executive ONLY.

(21) The office of Special Projects Chairperson shall be an appointed office of the Executive via a vote of simple majority of the Executive ONLY.

(22) The office of Culinary Arts Chairperson shall be an appointed office of the Executive via a vote of simple majority of the Executive ONLY.

(23) Notwithstanding the provisions outlined in Article 4, the offices of Block Representatives shall be voted in via secret ballots or appointed by members of their respective blocks ONLY.

(24) ALL offices, excluding those outlined in Sections 20, 21, 22, and 23 with two (2) or more nominees shall be voted in via a simple majority of full members of this Council.

Confidence Vote

(25) Where there is only one nominee for a position, they shall be acclaimed and deemed elected to that position ONLY if they have gained a simple majority of the confidence vote.

Eligibility

(26) Any full member of the Council that seeks office on the Executive except for offices which are to be filled via appointment MUST fulfil the following:

(a) Be nominated by two full members of the Council.
(b) Not be subject to ANY disciplinary procedure.
(c) Act in Accordance with ALL Constitutional rules of nomination, campaigning, and election.
(d) Be nominated for ONLY one post on the Executive that year.
(e) Not have held office on the Guild Council in the same academic year for which office is being sought on the Frank Worrell Hall Executive.

(27) The office of Treasurer MUST be held by a full member who is undertaking or has undertaken study in a degree that involves components in fiscal management and general accounting or has had reasonably substantial work experience in the accounting field.

(28) The office of Constitutional Chairperson MUST be held by a full member who is or has undertaken study in any law programme or with reasonably substantial work experience in the legal field.

(29) In the event that there are no candidates for the posts of Treasurer and/or Constitutional Chairperson with the relevant qualifications as described in Article III, Sections (25) and (26) of this Constitution then the Returning Officer shall reopen the posts, thus making them available to ANY willing candidate according to the stipulations of Article III, Sec. (24), (a) – (e) of this Constitution.

Tenure of Office

(30) All elected offices of the Executive, including that of the Hall Chairperson but excluding the Returning Officer and Special Projects Chairperson shall hold office from April 1st until March 31st of the succeeding year.
(a) The Executive shall appoint its Returning Officer and Special Projects Chairperson by the 20th day of April.
(b) This process shall take the form of an interview session where applicants will be interviewed by the sitting Executive and any other invited guests.

Nomination

(31) A nomination form shall contain the name of the candidate; his Forms academic year and the post he desires to run for; together with the signatures of the proposer, seconder and that of the person nominated.

(32) ONLY forms that have been correctly filled according to the stipulations of this Constitution will be considered for the relevant posts

Nomination Dates

(33) Nominations shall be opened from the first week of February until the 1st of March at 11:59 pm, subject to the Guild's nominations period. A Nomination Forms" box shall be provided in the Hall's Junior Common Room for the duration of this period.

(34) ALL nomination forms MUST be placed within this box as they will NOT be accepted otherwise.

Electoral Commitee

(35) The electoral committee shall undertake the elections of the Council's Executive posts, except those of the Hall Chairperson, the Returning Officer and the Special Projects Chairperson.

(36) The Committee will be chaired by the Council's Returning Officer ONLY And shall be comprised of ONLY full members of the Council not otherwise involved in the elections in ANY form.

(37) The compilation of this committee shall be at the discretion of the Returning Officer.

Campaign

(38) Campaigning can only begin upon the Returning Officer's signal.

rules

(39) Prior to the elections, the Returning Officer will hold a mandatory meeting for all candidates, explaining the rules and regulations of the election and the campaigning.

(40) ALL campaigning, inclusive of visual, auditory and all other forms MUST be terminated by 12 am of the day of elections.

(41) No one shall congregate in any way, shape or form within 60 feet of the polling station during voting and may only visit the polls IF they are voting.

(42) If anyone (besides those allowed in or assigned to the polling area) has To commute they must do so quickly as any undue delay will be considered an election irregularity.

Procedures For Elections & Bye-elections

(43) At least fifteen (15) days before the start of the election period the Returning Officer shall cause to be posted in suitable places:
(a) The time and place of the elections.
(b) The number of vacancies to be filled.
(c) The latest time for the receipt of nomination papers, which shall not be less than one week (7 days) before elections.
(d) The time up to which nominated candidates may withdraw by Notice in writing (that not being more than forty-eight (48) hours Before elections) and how and to whom this notice shall be sent.
(e) The time up to which nominated candidates are allowed to campaign.
(f) Possible disciplinary measures to be taken in the event of electoral misconduct by any candidate as stipulated by the Returning Officer upon advice from the Constitutional Chairperson.

(44) The Secretary shall prepare and deliver to the Returning Officer, no later than seven (7) days before the day fixed for any elections, lists in duplicate of the persons qualified to vote in that election.

(45) Not less than ten (10) days before the date of the elections the Returning Officer shall have posted on all Notice Boards lists of any vacancies, together with the names of the persons nominated.

(46) Upon ANY withdrawal, by ANY candidate, the lists in Article III, Sec. (43) of this Constitution MUST be revised and reposted.

Poll Times

(47) The poll shall be open from 9:00 am to 6:00pm on the day of the elections.

(48) In the event of a tie in voting, a fresh poll shall be taken within five (5) days between the hours of 9:00am and 6:00pm.

Voter's Rules

(49) Each voter MUST present his identification card and sign a register BEFORE voting.

(50) At the time of the closing of the poll, the ballot papers and the register shall be sealed and not opened until the order for counting is given by the Returning Officer.

Ballots

(51) Ballots boxes shall be provided in the Hall's Junior Common Room and MUST be sealed at ALL times

(52) Ballots shall not be destroyed before four (4) weeks after the official release of the results of the elections.

Invalid Ballots

(53) A ballot shall be declared invalid if:

(a) The voter has indicated his choice by any symbol other than an " X ".

(b) There are markings on the ballot that appear to be deliberate and or random.

Electoral Queries

(54) All questions relating to the validity of an election/appointment shall be determined by the Returning Officer. All such questions shall be raised in writing and shall be determined one (1) week thereafter.
An Appeal can be made to the Guild of Students Electoral or Constitutional Committee if any member of the council is unsatisfied as to the handling of said electoral query.

Election Results

(55) The results of the elections shall be published on all Notice Boards within twenty-four (24) hours of the closing of the poll.

Election Dates

(56) The election shall take place within 15 days after the nomination period closes.

Election sequence

(57) The election of the Executive shall be in the following sequence:

(a) Deputy Hall Chairperson;
(b) Treasurer;
(c) Secretary;
(d) Public Relations Officer;
(e) Constitutional Chairperson;
(f) Welfare Officer;
(g) Cultural and Entertainment Activities Chairperson;
(h) Sports & Games Chairperson;
(i) Maintenance Representative.

Vacancies

(58) Any Executive office held by a council member who ceases to reside on Hall is automatically vacant.

(59) Any person elected or appointed to hold office shall automatically forfeit their seat thereon if they are absent from three (3) consecutive, regular Council meetings without a reasonable excuse stated in writing to the Secretary of the Council.

(60) No act or resolution of the Executive shall be invalid by reason of ANY vacancy in the Executive body.

Vacancy for the Office of Hall Chairperson (61) Should the office of Hall Chairperson become vacant, a new Hall Chairperson shall forthwith be elected by secret ballot from among the full members of the Council within one month of the post becoming vacant unless the vacancy shall occur after December 31 of any year. In this case, the Deputy Hall Chairperson shall fill the office of Hall Chairperson until the end of his tenure by a vote of simple majority.

Vacancy for the Office of Deputy Chairperson (62) Should the office of Deputy Hall Chairperson become vacant, a new Deputy Hall Chairperson shall forthwith be elected by secret ballot from among the Full Members of the Council within one (1) month of the post being vacant, unless, the vacancy shall occur after December 31 in any year. In which case the Executive shall decide whether an election be held or whether the functions of the Deputy Hall Chairperson shall be performed by the Hall Chairperson or a nominee from among the members of the Executive by a vote of simple majority.

Vacancy for the Office of treasurer 63) Should the office of the Treasurer become vacant, a new Treasurer shall forthwith be elected by secret ballot from Treasurer the Full Members of the Council within one (1) month of the post being vacant, unless, the vacancy shall occur after December 31 in any year, in which case the Executive shall decide whether an election be held or whether the functions of the Treasurer shall be performed by a nominee from among the members of the Executive by a vote of simple majority.

Vacancy for any Other Office (64) Should a vacancy exist in any other office of the Executive, the office shall be filled through a bye-election within one (1) month of the post becoming vacant unless it is determined by the Executive upon the advice of the Constitutional Chairperson, that an appointment by a vote of simple majority may be appropriate.

Resignations (65) Any member of the Executive may resign by giving notice in writing to the Secretary and or the Constitutional Chairperson and the Resignation shall be effective not less than seven (7) days after its Receipt or, if desired, of immediate effect.

– ARTICLE IV –

THE EXECUTIVE

Establishment 66) In pursuance of the Guilds Constitution, the Council's Executive shall be a standing committee of the Guild and shall be responsible to the full members of the Council for the duties undertaken in pursuance to the fulfilment of Art's (16) and (17) of this Constitution.

Handing Over (67) Executive members shall formally take office by the 1st week of April in a ceremony to be organized by the outgoing Executive. This ceremony shall comprise of the new Executive members being sworn into office, the signing of their contracts

Oath of Office (68) All Executive members shall be bound to adherence to the Constitution upon the declaration and signing of their Oaths of Office.

(69) The treasurer's Oath of Office shall include a clause of adherence to honest monetary dealings throughout their tenure.

(70) The signed Oaths of Office shall be in the sole keeping of the Constitutional Chairperson and shall be part of the contents of that folder of office.

Objectives (71) The objectives of the Hall Council's Executive shall be:

(a) To initiate, arrange and undertake whatever actions or activities subject to the University's stipulations that may be reasonably necessary to enhance the social, emotional, academic, and spiritual lives of all council members.

(b) To initiate, arrange and undertake whatever actions or activities subject to the University's stipulations that may be reasonably necessary to promote a sense of unity and closeness among council members.

(c) To collaborate and or act alongside the University's Administration, governmental and non-governmental organisations and other student organizations in order to enhance the experience of life on Hall.

(d) To safeguard the rights and interests of all council members.

(e) To officially represent council members in matters affecting them generally, as members of the University and specifically, as members of the Frank Worrell Hall of Residence.

Offices of the Executive (72) The Offices of the Executive shall be as follows:

(a) Hall Chairperson;
(b) Deputy Hall Chairperson;
(c) Treasurer;
(d) Secretary;

(e) Public Relations Officer;
(f) Constitutional Chairperson;
(g) Welfare Officer;
(h) Cultural and Entertainment Activities Chairperson;
(i) Sports & Games Chairperson;
(j) Maintenance Representative;
(k) Culinary Arts Chairperson;
(l) Returning Officer;
(m) Special Projects Chairperson

Duties of the Hall Chairperson

(73) The Hall Chairperson shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Represent the Council in respect of all formal and informal matters and or meetings on or off campus.
(b) Represent the Council in all meetings of the Guild, general and or council, and report to the Council, as advised by the Executive, on all matters concerning Council members.
(c) Ensure that reports are submitted to the Guild Executive in accordance with its byelaws.
(d) Chair the meetings of the Executive.
(e) Assist in the coordination of all activities of the Council.
(f) Create ad hoc committees from time to time as may be deemed necessary upon advice from the Executive.
(g) Ensure that the Executive is efficiently run.
(h) Be the Deputy Chairperson of the Constitutional Committee.
(i) Sit on any other Committee of the Executive and directly affect the running of such, from time to time, upon his/her own discretion.

(74) If, due to severe illness or any other pressing matter, the Hall Chairperson is unable to attend any meeting which she/he is required by this Constitution to attend or to chair, he/she shall appoint any member of the Executive to attend or chair the meeting on his/her behalf. This privilege shall not be used to override the Hall Chairperson's duties as stated by the Constitution.

(75) The Hall Chairperson shall perform any other functions assigned to him/her in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Deputy Hall Chairperson

(76) The Deputy Hall Chairperson shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Deputise in the absence or inability of the Hall Chairperson to perform his duties.
(b) Assist the Hall Chairperson in administration of the Executive.
(c) Be the Chairperson of the Carnival Development Committee. As the Chairperson for the Carnival Committee the Deputy Hall Chairperson has to ensure that:
    i. preparations and promotions for the carnival band is done in a timely manner,
    ii. adequate fundraising activities are carried out and

iii. the Hall Council is duly informed of all decisions made in relation to the Carnival Development Committee.

(d) Be the Chairperson of the Block Representatives Committee and be the formal representative of the block representatives on the Executive.Be responsible for hosting at least 2 Block events per Semester.

(e) Be responsible for spearheading the Executive Council's asset rental programme

(77) The Deputy Hall Chairperson along with the Treasurer, Returning Officer and Welfare Officer shall oversee the administration of the Welfare Fund and shall sit on its Panel of Directors.

(78) The Deputy Hall Chairperson shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Treasurer

(79) The Treasurer shall perform the following duties competently Throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Account for all funds received or spent by the Executive.

(b) Be responsible for the collection of all monies at all fundraising activities of the Executive.

(c) Prepare financial statements and shall present them first to the Executive with all necessary financial documentation at least two times per semester, one being produced at each of the two mandatory general meetings each semester.

(d) Provide the General Membership with financial statements at the first and last meetings of the General Membership of each Semester.

(e) Shall sign all cheques along with the Hall Chairperson or the Deputy Hall Chair if the former is absent.

(f) Issue receipts, and any other documentation that concerns either the receipt or disbursement of monies.

(g) Maintain the petty cash account of the Executive.

(h) Be the Chairperson of the Fundraising Committee which shall consist of all the Treasurers for the respective blocks on Frank Worrell Hall. The responsibilities as the Chairperson for this Committee are:

(i) to ensure that adequate fundraisers are carried out for the activities of the council

(ii) to oversee all other fundraising activities of the hall 17

(iii) to liaise with the Culinary Chairperson in major fundraising events which involve the making of food.

(80) The Treasurer along with the Deputy Hall Chairperson, Returning Officer and Welfare Officer shall oversee the administration of the Welfare Fund and shall sit on its Panel of Directors.

(81) The Treasurer shall prepare the relevant financial statements and present such at meetings of the Executive whenever the Welfare Fund has been active.

(82) The Treasurer shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Secretary

(83) The Secretary shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) File and store all documents of the Executive and or Council.
(b) Receive and record all correspondence of the Executive.
(c) Be responsible for the output of all correspondence involving the Executive.
(d) Manage and maintain the minutes of all meetings, both General and Executive.
(e) Be a member and shall serve as Secretary of the Disciplinary Committee.

(84) The Secretary shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Public Relations Officer

(85) The Public Relations Officer shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Create and maintain a positive image of the Executive.
(b) Be responsible for the production and distribution of all publications of the Executive, including the Council's Annual Yearbook.
(c) Liaise with all Committee Chairpersons to ensure that relevant information is quickly and efficiently disseminated on Hall.
(d) Promote and advertise all activities posited by the Executive, and disseminate all relevant information.
(e) Be the Chairperson of ALL General Council meetings unless otherwise stipulated by the Hall Chairperson.
(f) Select members from the various Hall Committees to assist in the production of the Hall's Annual Yearbook
(g) Be responsible for the general upkeep and the updating of the Main notice board on Frank Worrell Hall.
(h) Be the Chairperson of the Public Relations Committee.
(i) Be the Deputy Chairperson of the Block Representatives Committee.

(86) The Public Relations Officer together with the Returning Officer shall attain ideas and views from the General Membership that would assist in the Council attaining its objectives.

(87) The Public Relations Officer shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Constitutional Chairperson

(88) The Constitutional Chairperson shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Ensure that the Constitution is abided to.

(b) Devise and maintain a system for ensuring compliance with the Constitution and keeping records of all breaches of the Constitution.
(c) Periodically attend the meetings of any Committee, in order to determine compliance with the Constitution.
(d) Be responsible for adjudicating all matters relating to the interpretation of this Constitution.
(e) Be the Chairperson of the Constitutional Committee and facilitate all business relating to Constitutional Amendments in accordance with Article 1 S5 of this Constitution.
(f) Be the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee of the Executive

(89) The Constitutional Chairperson shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Welfare Officer

(90) The Welfare Officer shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:
(b) Devise appropriate means of determining which council members are in sincere need of assistance. This assistance may be but is not limited to financial assistance.
(c) Liaise actively, via the Executive, with both the Hall's Administration to seek means through which the needs of residents may be met.
(d) Determine which persons are to receive assistance and what forms of assistance best meet their individual needs.
(e) Assist the Culinary Arts Chairperson in planning and organising the Frank Worrell Hall Soup Kitchen(s).
(e) Be the Chairperson of the Welfare Committee and spearhead the Planning of Worreliffic Wednesday to be held once every month during each semester.

(91) The Welfare Officer along with the Deputy Hall Chairperson, Returning Officer and Treasurer shall oversee the administration of The Welfare Fund and shall sit on its Panel of Directors.

(92) The Welfare Officer shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Cultural and Entertainmnet Activities Chairperson

(93) The Cultural and Entertainment Activities Chairperson shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:
(a) Be responsible for ALL cultural and entertainment undertakings of the Executive which shall include the staging of the Hall King & Queen Pageant as well as the organizing of all social activities authorized by the Executive.
(b) Work with any other Councillors, when requested, if the activity relates generally to Cultural awareness.
(c) Be the Chairperson of the Entertainment Committee.

(94) The Cultural Entertainment Activities Chairperson shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Sports & Games Chairperson

(95) The Sports and Games Chairperson shall perform the following Sports & Games duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his Chairperson tenure:

(a) Be responsible for the promotion and development of all sporting/gaming activities regarding the Council.
(b) Organize regular sporting/gaming activities of the Council.
(c) Organize and manage inter and intra-hall sports programmes
(d) Coordinate the Council's Annual Sports Day.
(e) Be the Chairperson of the Sports & Games Committee.

(96) The Sports & Games Representative shall perform any other functions that are assigned to her/him from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Maintenance Representative

(97) The Maintenance Representative shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Maintain a close relationship with the Maintenance Department Of the Business Office of the Frank Worrell Hall, in order to ensure that reports of broken equipment or facilities are dealt with in a timely manner.
(b) Make provisions, when reasonably requested, for the attainment of equipment that is necessary for an activity being held for the Council.
(b) Maintain and keep the Council's "Repair Box" which shall be under his sole care and use if the need arises.
(c) Be the Chairperson of the Maintenance Committee of which all Floor Representatives (from the respective Blocks on Frank Worrell Hall) shall automatically be members.

(98) The Maintenance Representative shall perform any other functions that are assigned to her/him from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Culinary Arts Chairperson

(99) The Culinary Arts Chairperson shall perform the following duties Culinary Arts to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a)Be in charge of planning and organizing the Frank Worrell Hall Soup Kitchen(s).
(b) Be responsible for planning and organising Food/Beverage for other Frank Worrell Hall Events.
(d) Be an ex officio member of the Fundraising Committee, and oversee food preparation for major fundraising efforts for the Hall.
(d) Liaise with the Secretary to ensure that all personnel in each Food/Beverage sale acquire the necessary documents for the sale and preparation of the food.

(e) Be the Chairperson of the Culinary Arts Committee.

(100) The Culinary Arts Chairperson shall perform any other functions that are assigned to her/him from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Returning Officer

(101) The Returning Officer shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of her/his tenure:

(a) Be responsible for the holding of all elections and appointments of the Council independent of advice contrary to the running of a free, fair and just election.

(b) Consult with the Guild of Students' Returning Officer and the Frank Worrell Hall Constitutional Chairperson when undertaking these events.

(c) Be the Chairperson of the Electoral Committee.

(d) Be a member of the Disciplinary Committee.

(e) The Returning Officer along with the Deputy Hall Chairperson, Welfare Officer and Treasurer shall oversee the administration of The Welfare Fund and shall sit on its Panel of Directors.

(e) The Public Relations Officer together with the Returning Officer Shall attain ideas and views from the General Membership that would assist in the Council attaining its objectives.

(102) The Returning Officer shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Duties of the Special Projects Chairperson

(103) The Special Projects Chairperson shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of his/her Projects tenure:

(a) Be responsible for gaining sponsorships or donations from corporations/companies/businesses to support major Frank Worrell Hall's projects and events. These activities include Unity week, the King and Queens of Hall Pageant, Halls Week, Welfare initiatives and any other major fundraising activities agreed on by the Executive.

(b)Be the Chairperson of the Special Projects Committee.

(c) Assist the Treasurer in fulfilling his/her mandate as it regards Fundraising activities in accordance with section 77(h) of the Constitution.

(e)Be responsible for all matters relating to Honorary Members.

(104) The Special Projects Chairperson shall perform any other functions that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

Leave of Absence

(105) The purpose of this section is to allow any Executive Member time away from their council duties in instances where they are unable, for specific reasons, to execute their duties effectively. This section is not meant to be abused.

(106) The Executive councillor must send in writing a request to the Constitutional Chairperson, outlining the reason for their leave of absence request. Thereafter, an emergency meeting will be held with the Requesting Councillor, the Constitutional Chairperson and the Hall Chairperson to discuss the particulars of the request. Leave may be granted after this process is completed.

(107) All positions from 76 -103 are allowed one leave of absence per semester for a maximum of 7 days. If a councillor requests leave for a period exceeding 7 days this will be given consideration in the Emergency meeting that is to be held.

– ARTICLE V –

BLOCK REPRESENTATIVES

Electoral Processes

(108) All residents of the block except a sitting/contesting Executive Member are eligible to contest the post of block representative.

(109) Notice of the election must be given at least one week (7 days) before the election is held.

(110) The election must be held before the 1st day of April.

(111) The Returning Officer, or a member of the Electoral Committee nominated by the Returning Officer, shall act as an observer at each block representative election.

(112 Only members who are present are allowed to vote.

(113) No person shall be elected as a Block Representative for more than two (2) consecutive terms.

(114) Should the position of block representative become vacant, a byelection shall be held within one (1) week to fill the vacancy.

Duties Of the Block Representative

(115) The Block Representative shall perform the following duties to the best of his/her ability throughout the period of his or her tenure:

(a)Ensure that all rights and privileges of full members in this Representative Constitution are respected.

(b) Assist the Hall Council in putting on Hall events for example Halls Week and Unity Week.

(c) Ensure that there is at least one social activity per semester to encourage bonding and foster better relationships amongst block mates.

(d) Ensure that there is at least one block meeting per semester and additional meetings as the need arises.

(e) Ensure that there is an election of a block treasurer and floor representatives for each floor no later than twenty-one days after the beginning of semester one. The Block Treasurer shall be a part of the Hall's Fund Raising Committee.

(f) Ensure that there is an election of a deputy block representative no later than twenty-one days (21 days)after the beginning of semester one. The Returning Officer, or a member of the Electoral Committee nominated by the Returning Officer, shall act as an observer at this election.

(g) The role of the deputy block representative shall be to:

(i) deputize in the absence or inability of the block representative to perform his/her duties and

(ii) assist the block representative in the management of the block.

(h) Ensure that all block fundraisers are approved by the Hall Treasurer.

(i) Maintain a detailed folder containing the Frank Worrell Hall constitution, emergency plan, and all other relevant pieces of information in which he/she thinks will assist the incoming block representative to effectively execute his/her duties.

(116) The block representative shall perform any other duties that are assigned to him/her from time to time in accordance with this Constitution.

– ARTICLE VI –

STANDING COMMITTEES

Standing Commitees

(117) Each office of the Executive shall have its own Standing Committee which shall be chaired by the respective Executive members ONLY.

(118) The Standing Committees shall be as follows:

(a) Block Representatives Committee
(b) Carnival Committee
(c) Constitutional Committee
(d)Culinary Arts Committee
(e) Disciplinary Committee
(f) Electoral Committee
(g)Fundraising Committee
(h) Maintenance Committee
(i) Public Relations Committee
(j) Sports Committee
(k) Welfare Committee

(119) Each Standing Committee shall be used ONLY for the purposes of assisting the respective offices in ALL their objectives and proposals for the respective year.

Formation of Standing Committees

(120) ALL Standing Committees, EXCEPT the Block Representatives Committee, shall be formed upon the first General Council Meeting of the first semester of the academic year following the new Executive's move into office.

(121) The Block Representatives Committee shall be formed upon the move into office of all Block Representatives, the Public Relations Officer and the Deputy Hall Chairperson.

Membership Of Standing Committees

(122) The membership of ALL Standing Committees, EXCEPT the Block of Representatives Committee, Fundraising Committee, and Maintenance Committee shall be determined by the Chairperson of each Committee.

(123) The membership of the Block Representatives Committee shall be restricted to ONLY those offices stipulated by the Constitution, that is, the Deputy Hall Chairperson, the Public Relations Officer and the Block Representatives.

– ARTICLE VII –

MEETINGS & CONDUCT PROTOCOLS

Hall Council Meetings

(124) All Hall Council Meetings shall be summoned by the Hall Chairperson or the person acting in her/his office. Emergency Hall Council Meetings may also be called by an absolute majority of the Executive.

(125) The business of Hall Council meetings shall include consideration of Reports and Balance Sheets, the passing of Constitutional amendments or Byelaws as well as the disclosure of proposed or upcoming activities.

(126) The Executive's Secretary shall record all minutes at all Hall Council meetings.

Notice of General Hall Council

(127) At least seven (7) days notice of the Hall Council Meeting shall Hall be given in writing – posted on all Notice Boards. An agenda for The Meeting shall also be posted on the Notice Boards within the time stated.

General Hall Council Meetings

(128) There shall be at least two (2) General meetings of the Hall Council per semester. The first shall be held within the first four weeks of the semester and the second shall be held before the last four (4) weeks of the semester.

Special Hall Council Meetings

(129) A Special Hall Council Meeting shall be called:

(a) When the Hall Chairperson deems it necessary.
(b) When it is requested by a simple majority of the Executive.
(c) If it is requested by not less than forty (40) full members of the Hall Council who shall have sent a request in writing to the Hall Chairperson stating the object for which the meeting is desired.

Notice of Special Hall Council Meetings

(130) Notice of a Special Hall Council Meeting shall be posted Hall Council on all the Notice Boards at least twenty-four (24) hours before the Meetings date fixed for the meeting. The business of the meeting shall be limited to that which is specified in the notice.

Executive Meetings

(131) The Executive shall meet at least four (4) times per semester, such semester periods being defined by the University Calendar.

(132) Meetings of the Executive shall be chaired by the Hall Chairperson or in his/her absence by the Deputy Hall Chairperson.

(133) The Hall Chairperson may hand over the chair to her/his Deputy temporarily or for the remaining of the meeting. However, if the Deputy Hall Chairperson is absent, that task will be allocated to any member of the Executive.

(134) All meetings of the Council shall be called by the Hall Chairperson.

(135) At the first meeting of a newly elected Council, there shall be the performance of all initial duties that is required in the constitution, appointments being one such duty.

Procedures for Executive Meetings

(136) The Agenda shall include the review of the Minutes of the last meeting and matters arising from them.

(137) At each meeting of the Executive, the Secretary shall make note of all members that were present, absent or late.

Voting

(138) All decisions, except as otherwise stipulated by this Constitution, shall be taken on observed consensus or by vote of simple majority by the Executive.

(139) The Returning Officer shall have a casting vote to break any ties.

(140) The Executive shall have the power to permit non-members of the Executive to attend any of its meetings. Such permission shall NOT confer the right to vote or the right to speak except on the invitation of the Hall Chairperson.

Conduct for Executive Meetings

(141) All Executive members shall conduct themselves in a manner complimentary to the order and efficient running of all Executive meetings

(142) If the meeting's chairperson calls a meeting to order all members shall cease speaking and await signalling from the meeting's chairperson.

(143) If grave disorder arises, the chairperson acting on his discretion can declare the meeting adjourned and quit the chair, and by that declaration the meeting is immediately adjourned, and no business may be subsequently transacted.

(144) All executive members and guests shall observe the Hall Chairperson and Constitutional Chairperson as responsible for order and peace at any meeting.

Notice of Executive Meetings

(145) At least three (3) days' notice shall be given to every member of the Council. In the case of an emergency meeting at least (6) hours notice shall be given

Executive's Quorum

(146) Seven (7) members of the Council shall constitute its quorum.

Absence& Tardiness

(147) All members of the Executive shall attend every Executive meeting. In cases of absence or tardiness, members are asked to extend apologies via the secretary in verbal or written form.

Confidentiality

(148) Meetings of the Council shall be PRIVATE and NO reports of the proceedings shall be issued to the General Membership, except with the authority of the Executive.

(149) NO Executive member shall divulge in ANY form, to ANYONE, ANY part of the proceedings of the Executive except with the authority of the Executive meetings.

Dress Code

(150) Members of the Executive MUST be appropriately (modestly) dressed for ALL Council and Executive Meetings.

(a) For General Council Meetings Executive members may ONLY wear modest work/business attire.

(b) For all other meetings involving the Executive, Executive members must wear tops that are sleeved and bottoms that are at least knee length

– ARTICLE VIII –

BREACHES & DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

Disciplinary Committee

(151) The Disciplinary Committee is the standing committee of the office of Constitutional Chairperson and shall serve as an official advisory team to the Executive on ALL matters concerning breach of this Constitution.

(152) This Committee shall be chaired by the Constitutional Chairperson and shall comprise of at least one Hall Resident Advisor, the Secretary and three full members of the Council.

(153) The Disciplinary Committee shall be installed by the first General Council Meeting of the first semester of the academic year following the new Executive's move into office.

Forms of a Breach

(154) Executive members shall be subject to impeachment in the event that:

(a) The member fails to be present in the planning period, which includes but is not limited to the summer period, and provides no worthy excuse beforehand. The worthiness of this excuse shall be determined by the Executive via a vote of the absolute majority.

(b) The member is absent from three (3) consecutive Executive Meetings or the member has been present for less than two/thirds (¾) of Executive meetings for a semester.

(c) The member is absent from both General Hall meetings of the semester.

(d) The member is found to have failed in office, as to the performance of their duties as outlined by the Constitution.

(e) The member has been faced with or is facing two (2) or more disciplinary actions from the Hall Administration and/or the University administration.

(f) The member is found to have violated the Constitution in any other manner.

Theft Clause

(155)

1. Any full member of the Frank Worrell Hall who is accused of theft will be subject to investigation.
2. Upon such investigation if said full member is found guilty, they shall be subject to disciplinary action at the behest of Halls administration.

Reprimand of Hall Chairperson

(156) Should any breaches of the Constitution occur in the office of the Hall Chairperson then the person shall be reprimanded by being called to meet with the Hall's Disciplinary Committee, the Guild's Constitutional Chairperson and/or the Guild President.

(157) The decisions from this meeting shall be binding upon the office of Hall Chairperson, this office being primarily an office of the Guild Executive and thus subject directly to its Constitution. The decisions of this meeting shall be made known at the subsequent Executive and Council meetings by the Constitutional Chairperson and Guild President or Guild constitutional Chairperson.

Reprimand of Constitutional Chairperson

(158) Should any breach of this Constitution occur in the office of the Constitutional Chairperson then the person shall be reprimanded in writing via a Warning Letter by the Hall Chairperson after consultation with the Deputy Hall Chairperson and Secretary. The reprimand shall be recorded by the Secretary and announced at the first subsequent Executive and Council meetings.

Reprimand of All Other Executive

(159) Should any one (1) of the above occur in any office on the ALL Other Executive, except the offices of Hall Chairperson and Constitutional Chairperson, the person shall be reprimanded in writing via a Offices Warning Letter by the Hall Chairperson after consultation with the Constitutional Chairperson. The reprimand shall be recorded by the Constitutional Chairperson and announced at the first subsequent Executive and Council meetings.

Notices of Impeachment

(160) At least seven (7) days notice of the impeachment proceedings MUST be given to the Executive Member in question.

(161) The General Membership shall be notified of this motion for impeachment within ten (10) days and a Special Hall Council Meeting MUST be called which shall state the reasons for this motion, a defence to the motion and all other relevant matters.

Motions of Impeachment

(162) Should any Executive member, except the Hall Chairperson, receive three written reprimands, any other member of the Executive can move that the reprimanded officer be impeached.

(163) At least fifty (50) signatures must be obtained from full members of the Council if the Council desires a motion of impeachment.

(164) Neither the Hall Chairperson nor the Constitutional Chairperson shall have the power to overrule a motion for impeachment that has received fifty (50) signatures from Full Members of the council.

(165) During a motion for impeachment, the Executive Member in question MUST be given an opportunity to speak to the motion in their defence. This MUST be done by the Executive member in person.

Determination Of Impeachment

(166) An Executive position shall be deemed vacant if the simple majority of the Council votes in favour of the in Impeachment question.

Dissolution of The Organization

(167) Upon dissolution of the Organisation, all assets gained through the Guild shall be returned to the Guild Council and all other assets shall be placed in the trusteeship of the Guild on behalf of the Council. These are to be returned to the Council upon election of a new Executive.

APPENDIX

(For all posts of the FWH Executive, except the Treasurer)

Frank Worrell Hall's

Oath of Office

I _____ do pledge to fulfill my obligations in accordance with the Frank Worrell Hall's Constitution as ____ and as an Executive Member. I pledge to perform these duties to the best of my ability during my tenure and to put the interests of the residents of Frank Worrell Hall above all other interests of this nature.

Signature

Date of signature

APPENDIX

(For all posts of the FWH Executive, except the Treasurer)

Frank Worrell Hall's

Oath of Office

I, _____, do pledge to fulfill my obligations in accordance with the Frank Worrell Hall Constitution as the Treasurer and as an Executive Member, to the best of my ability during my tenure. I pledge to only engage in honest monetary dealings and to put the interests of the residents of Frank Worrell Hall above all other interests.

Signature

Date of signature

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES

FRANK WORRELL HALL

EMERGENCY EVACUATION PLAN

JULY 2010

FLOOR REPRESENTATIVES:

In case of an emergency each floor representative is responsible for the safety of their floor and shall take the following course of action:

- Alert all persons to the emergency
- Check all bathrooms
- Direct residents to the stairs in an orderly manner
- Assist persons with illness and injuries, i.e., (broken limbs, asthma, heart condition)
- Assist the physically handicap to the Area of Rescue
- Report to the Block Representative that floor is clear of all residents
- Report to Block Representative an accurate head count of persons on his/her floor and those absent or missing at the time of the emergency.

BLOCK REPRESENTATIVES

- Remain on the ground level to assist with evacuation
- Direct persons to the Emergency Assembly Point
- Assist the sick, physically challenged and injured persons
- Deny entry to persons returning to the Block
- Responsible for the assembling of all persons on his/her Block at the Emergency Assembly Point
- Report to the Incident Commander of persons present, absent or missing
- Complete an Incident Report Form and hand to the Incident Commander

SECURITY OFFICER – Main Entrance - Frank Worrell Hall

- Report nature and location of emergency immediately to the Control Room
- Remain at location – Main Entrance – Frank Worrell Hall
- Open Main Gate
- Directs patrol officer to the location of the emergency
- Communicate with patrol officer at the scene of the incident
- In the event of fire, ascertain the extent of the blaze and actions to be taken
- Deny entry to persons returning to Halls

MEET/EXIT POINTS

The Main Gate of Frank Worrell Hall shall be designated an Emergency Entrance
Blocks 1-6 shall use Main Gate and Walk of Fame Gate
Blocks 7-10 shall use Tim Hector Gate (proposed new gate at Media Centre)

(where blaze is out of control)

PATROL OFFICER

• Relay vital information to Security Control
• Inform Control of emergency gates being opened
• Open Walk of Fame Gate and Tim Hector Gate
• Deny entry to persons returning to the Block or onlookers
• Direct persons to the Emergency Assembly Point

CONTROL ROOM

• Inform Senior Security Officer
• Call fire service, police and ambulance
• Call Director of Security/Chief of Security
• Call Halls' Manager
• Record all information relating to incident in the Daily Diary
• Direct Security Officers to enforce traffic regulations

SECURITY OFFICERS – Main Entrance/Main Concourse/Round-a-bout

Security Officer – Main Entrance, divert all traffic including student buses to Free Hill
Keep entrance clear
Direct fire appliance, police, ambulance to emergency to the scene of fire
Security Officer – Main concourse, block exists at Chemistry Sherlock Hall junction
Divert all traffic to Free Hill

GENERAL GUIDELINES

PURPOSE:

This Emergency Evaluation Plan outlines the necessary steps to be taken in the event of a natural or man-made disaster. It is designed to provide an orderly and efficient transition of emergency operations. The plan includes instructions for Block Representatives, Floor Representatives and Security Officers

The development of this plan will be an ongoing process. New information will be added and procedures will be reviewed on an annual basis. It will be modified and adjusted to meet the needs of the University.

LINE OF AUTHORITY:
In the event of an emergency and evacuation is necessary Campus Security has the right to facilitate an orderly evacuation.

NEW STAFF:
Copies of this plan should be given to new members of staff and Hall residents. A subsequent meeting should be held to ascertain whether they understand the plan.